Brevard College
Brevard, NC
28712
(704) 883-8292

During 1993, Brevard College is celebrating its 140th anniversary. Along with the celebrations come a look both to the past and to the future. Some things remain dear to us and seem as if they will last forever — the cherished friendships, the everlasting beauty of the Blue Ridge Mountains, the serenity and religious atmosphere of the campus, the people — OH the people. However, with all of these wonderful things we have valued throughout the years, we keep our vision for the future consistently strong — the growing campus, the academic expansions, the new clubs, and the environmental emphasis. Yet, all the time, our hearts remain TRUE BLUE.

Blast From The Past

Over the past 140 years, Brevard College has touched the lives of many people. Administration, faculty and students have all had some of their best and some of their worst days here at Brevard. Through it all some people have chosen to dedicate themselves to the betterment of the school and from time to time we all should stop and recognize them. Why do they do it? Maybe their blood truly does run BLUE. Perhaps it's because they have the freedom to show their true BLUE colors, or possibly they are addicted to the entertaining excuses the students use from year to year. Whatever the reason, Brevard College has been fortunate in having a large percentage of the faculty and administration as long term assets. Thus, we can reminicse and enjoy a closer look at the changes they have endured. Whether they have more or less hair over the years or they have given up their horn-rimmed glasses, their hearts have remained true to BC.

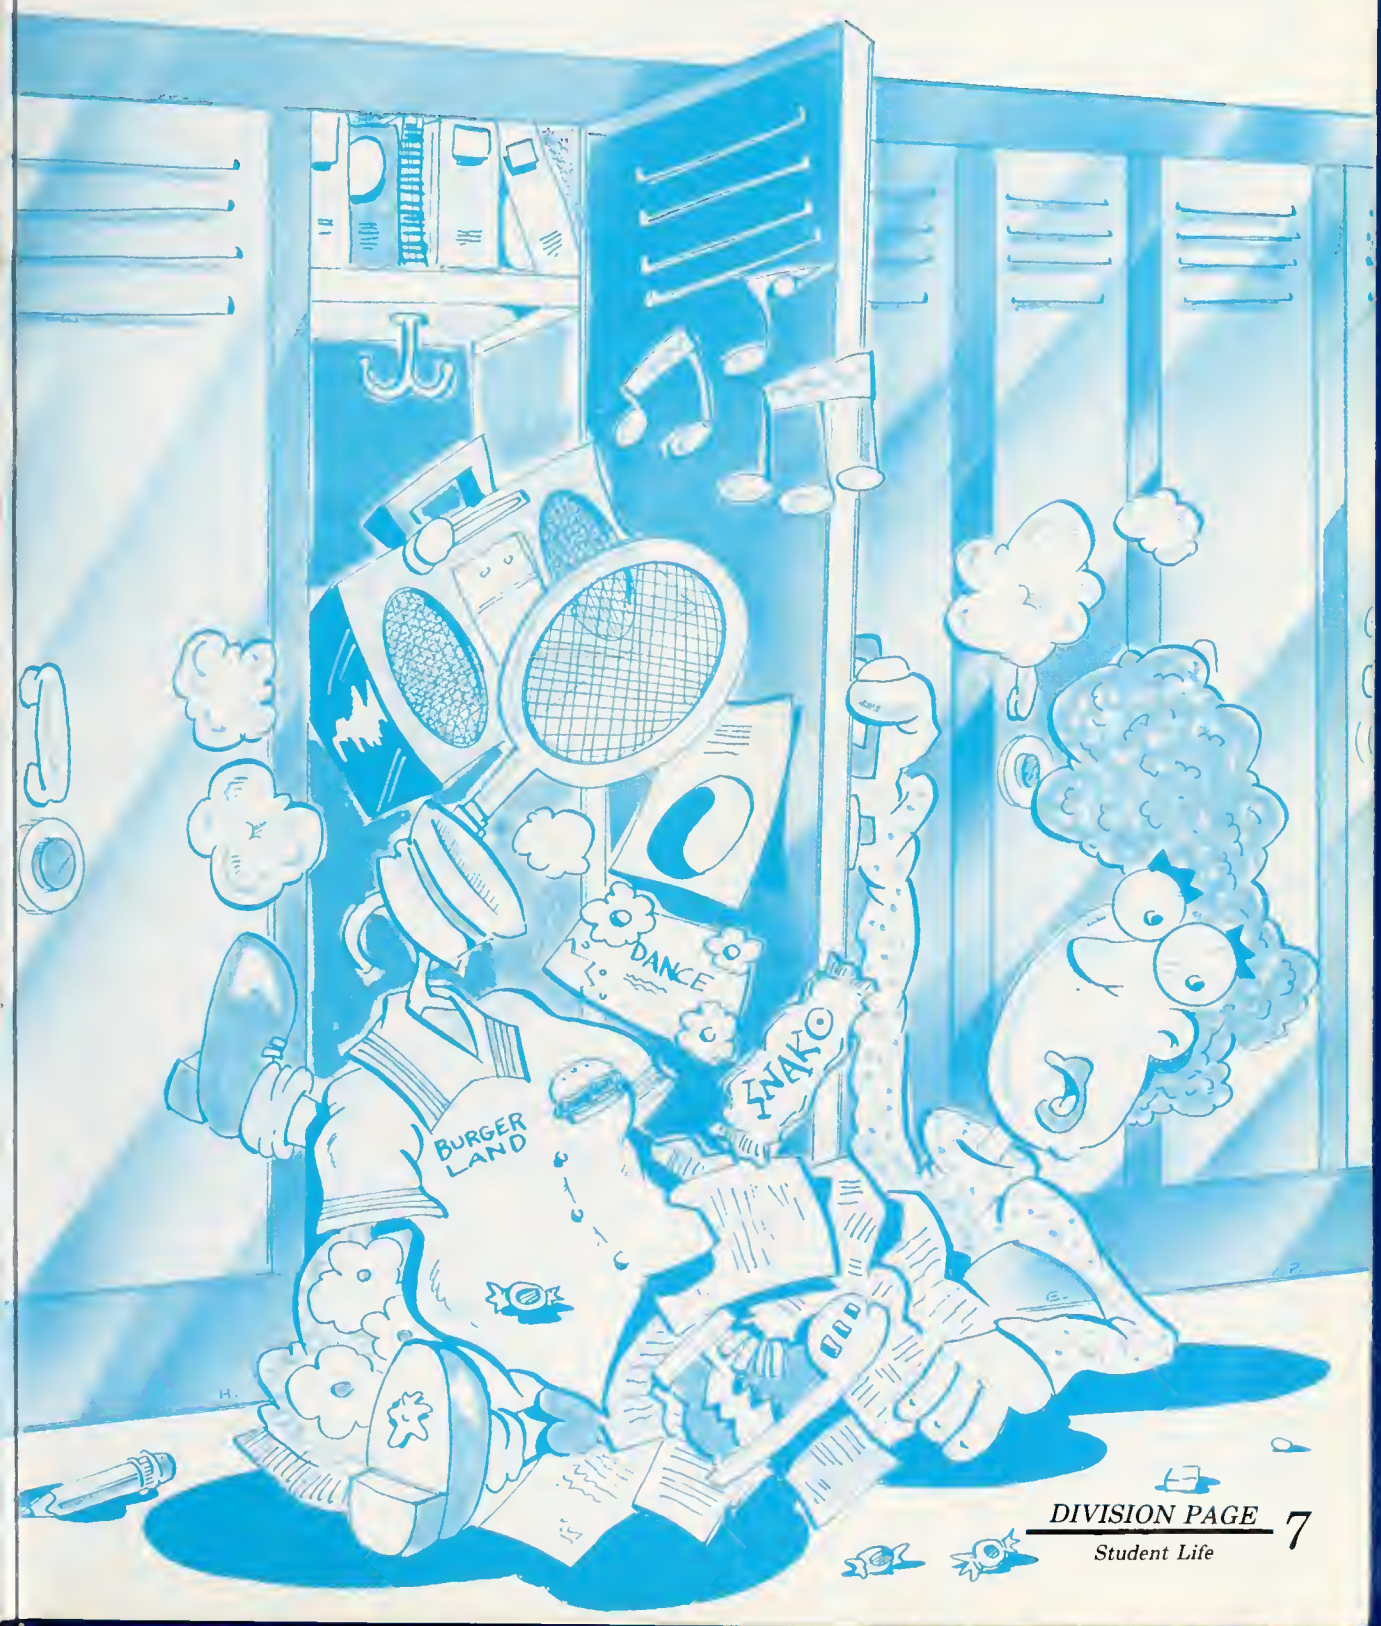
Student Life



Moving In

Remember the first time you left home? Many college students, especially freshman, will agree that moving away from home can be very difficult. However, adding a few special touches to one's room, investing in a calling card, and making a lot of friends can make all the difference.

A typical, but clean, Ross Hall room.

Everyone, including Carrie Alter, knows that there are many ways to avoid breaking visitation hours and still have fun.

Meggan Batza utilizes her room for study space.

Boy! Those guys trying to do their laundry.

Some people enjoy decorating their rooms with flyers from other schools.

West Beam girls are sunbathing on Derby Day.

Will Decatur laughs at Bobby Gardner as he wins at musical buckets.

Hey! Be careful; do not squeeze any water out.

The guys of Green Dorm struggle for first place in the tug o war contest.

Bobby Britt and Geoff Green rush to the finish line.

Derby Day

Do you remember what you were doing on August 29th? If you can't remember, you obviously weren't at Derby Day. It was a fun-filled day full of exciting events. Only the strong survive, and the overall winners of this exciting day were West Jones and Perimeter Housing.

Scott Wherley of Green Dorm puts the finishing touches on his shaving cream hair sculpture.

Ready, let's GO!

Meet My Folks

Each year Brevard College opens its doors to the students' parents. October 31 proved to be a beautiful fall day which gave everyone the opportunity to enjoy the scenery of the surrounding area as well visit in the dorms, classes, and the cafeteria.

Andy Merl shows his parents the Weaver College bell.

Who said that you had to have a football team to tailgate?

Heather Decatur enjoys time spent with parents, Charles and Lucy Smith.

French Instructor, Joy Bullock, meets Geoff Green's father on parent's weekend.

Nicole Kroncke gladly accepts her title of Freshman princess.

Between games, BC students wait anxiously for the Homecoming Queen to be announced.

Dean Witek offers his congratulations to Shane Wagoner, the 1992 Homecoming King.

Homecoming

Each year students and alumni enjoy the BC Homecoming celebration and this year was no exception. The bonfire pep rally, soccer games, the crowning of the court winners, and the annual dance were just a few of this year's exciting events. No matter what your pleasure, there was something for everyone.

A bonfire was enjoyed by all at the Friday night pep rally.

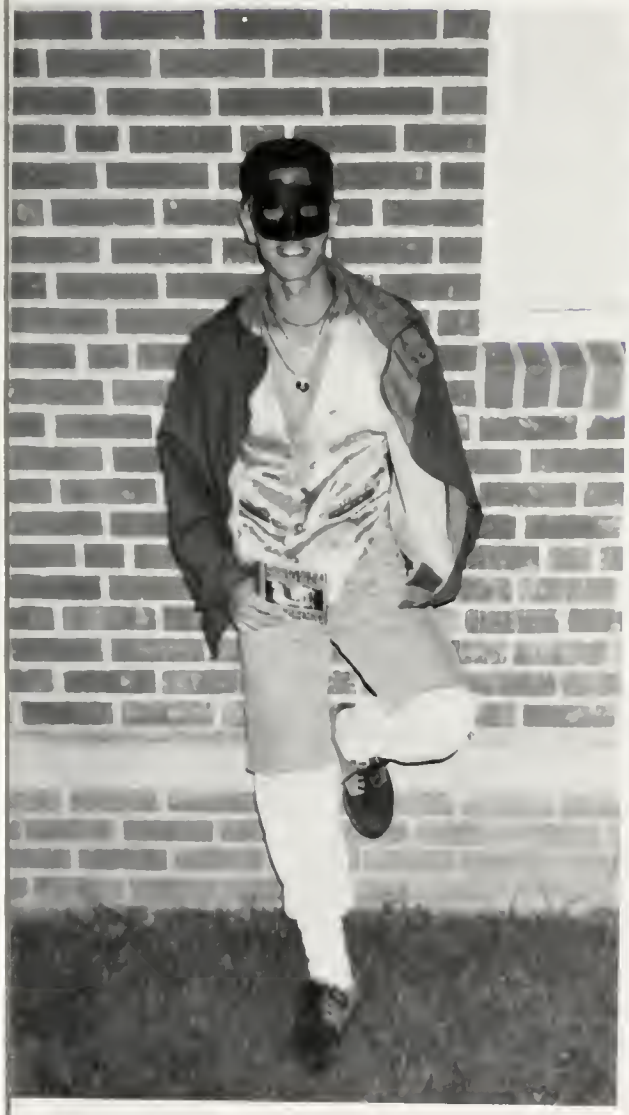
Homecoming Queen, Ardra MacDonald receives her crown.

A Nightmare On Broad Street

Who said Halloween was just for kids? Each year Halloween proves to be a time for students to dress up, trick or treat, and dance the night away at the Halloween Dance. This year was no exception to the rules. Even Parent's Weekend could not slow down the festivities.

Does anyone want to look in their closet?

It's midnight, and we're on the prowl!



Who is the masked man?

"He did the mash; he did the monster mash"

Second floor Jones worked very hard to be named "Best Decorated Hall."

The decorated entrance at Brevard College welcomes one and all.

Anne Pittman and her two daughters enjoy a tour of Jones dorm with Ren Decatur.

Clyde Carter, Joshua Carter, Kathy Meehan, Shannon Wetmore, Wendy Carter and Courtney Carter enjoy the decorations.

Students in Jones lobby enjoy the open house with friends.

The Walt Disney Christmas Parade as seen by a BC student.

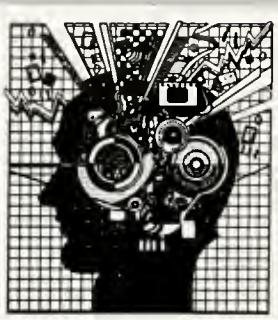
Tis The Season

Each year Christmas at Brevard brings many things — from visions of snow in the mountains to dreaded final exams. But students LOVE the holiday season mainly because it brings with it a much needed vacation.

"Chestnus roasting on an open fire" was one of the many themes on second floor Jones.

The staff of Stamey Infirmary was in the Christmas spirit.

"Different Shades Of Blue"



To be given the opportunity to express our individuality and have a sense of freedom is important to our well-being as students and, more importantly, as individuals. It is comforting to know that we are free to express ourselves.

In deep thought, David Underwood takes time out to relax and enjoy the peaceful atmosphere.

"All by myself is how I want to be" says Reza Yazdi.

Duchess Wimberly taking a break between track and SGA meetings to grab a bite at the snack bar.

Chris Poole gives orders to his dorm, thus fulfilling his RD role.

Ivan Johnson prepares for a game of dodge ball.

I know this picture will get in the yearbook.

Shannon Wetmore and Michelle Richardson point Krista DeGrenier in the right direction.

Scott Wherley — "Arizona" and Chad Jones are a cute couple. Aren't they?

Just hangin' around!

Are D.D. Prota and Tom Jewsbury having fun yet?

Let's play some ball.

True Blue Ties

During our college years, we have made friends and lost friends; however, through the good and bad times in our life to come, these friendships that have bound us together as ONE will make a lasting impression on us.

Shane, Kelly, Benji, and Doni do that "male bonding thing."

Cherie Del Paggio and Blaire Weeks hold on to their friendship.

Getting The Blues

A major part of anyone's college career are the long hours of studying. Although one might have to give up going to the game, the dance or a favorite restaurant, in the end, the results are well worth the extra effort put forth.

Lori Day and Jeremy Franks enjoy time used to study together.

Beth Goetz spends her time studying alone.

Kristy Burgess prefers to study in MG.

Eric Pope and Hayden Hill work on a project together.

Other students prefer to study in the casual atmosphere of Beam lobby.

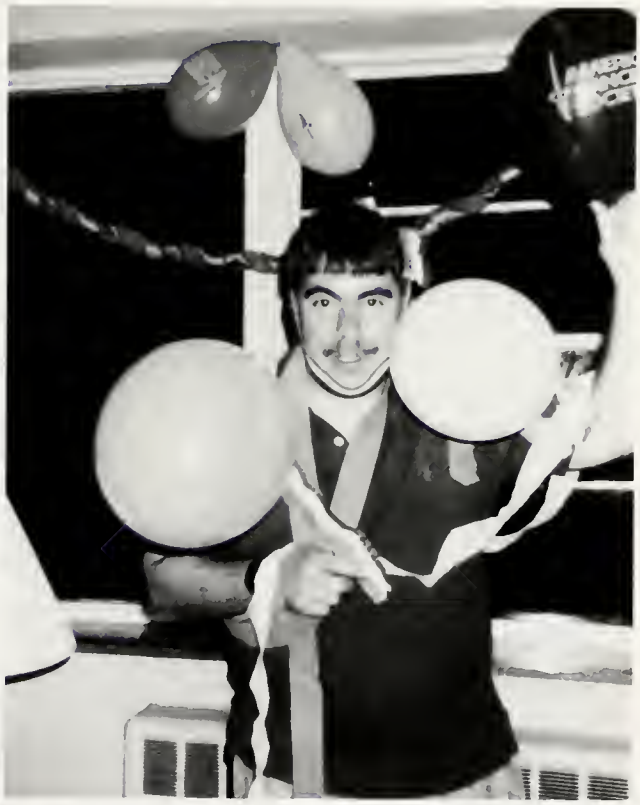
Cold Turkey

Each year the students of Brevard College, smokers and non-smokers alike, join together in the fight against cancer. This year was no exception.

The American Cancer Society symbol exhibited in Jones lobby.

Barbi, Tamara, and Carrie join the fight against cancer by participating in Cold Turkey Fair Day activities.

A.J. Buckner and Nate Hanzey welcome one and all to the Cold Turkey Fair.



Alex Bedient gets into the Cold Turkey spirit.

Geoff Green is showing his talent to Jones' residents.

Living Together

While living in the dorms, students begin to make friends that will last a lifetime. Along with the friendships come the fights reminiscent of home. But through it all, somehow we survive.

Charlotte Newell enjoys that call from home.

Livin' it up in Beam!!

Jeniffer, Jeff and Melinda enjoy studying together in Jones' lobby.

Dean Johnson and Anne Gaines prefer studying in the lobby of Beam.

Daniel and Brandon enjoy taking over the computer in Mrs. McBride's and Miss Chapman's office.

This group of commuters start off the year on a good note as they decide on social events for the year.

Dr. Glesener, the Commuter Student Advisor, enjoys taking pictures around campus.

A few commuters gather around to listen to Dr. Glesener and Miss Chapman.

To raise money for the commuter organization, Will Parker and Ibrahim Sanno take time out to wash cars.

Marty exhibits his artistry as he Tie-dyes his shirt for Derby Day.

A Different View Of Blue

If you have ever commuted to college, you will agree that you do get the best of both worlds — home and school; however, most commuters will agree that it is important to get involved with the school activities. This year the Commuter Students were fortunate to have a very active advisor, Dr. Bob Glesener and assistant advisor, Miss Patricia Chapman. Together, they worked hard to help the commuters get through matriculation, plan for Derby Day, and organize a car wash as well as other social events.

One On One

Brevard College fulfills its promise to go that extra mile to see to it that its students are provided with the special instruction, tutoring, and attention that is needed in order to succeed.

Tom Mahan shows Chris McQueen that learning can be a positive experience.

Tommy seeks tutoring from Mr. Bob Myers, a volunteer from Hendersonville.

The computer lab becomes an important place on campus to those who spend long evenings and nights finishing last minute projects.

Reza, AJ, and Nathan listen attentively as Mrs. Hollingsworth and Mrs. Choate instruct them on how to be effective tutors in the computer lab.

Dr. Cowan spends time every day in the Math Lab tutoring math students such as Stephan Dans.

Write On!

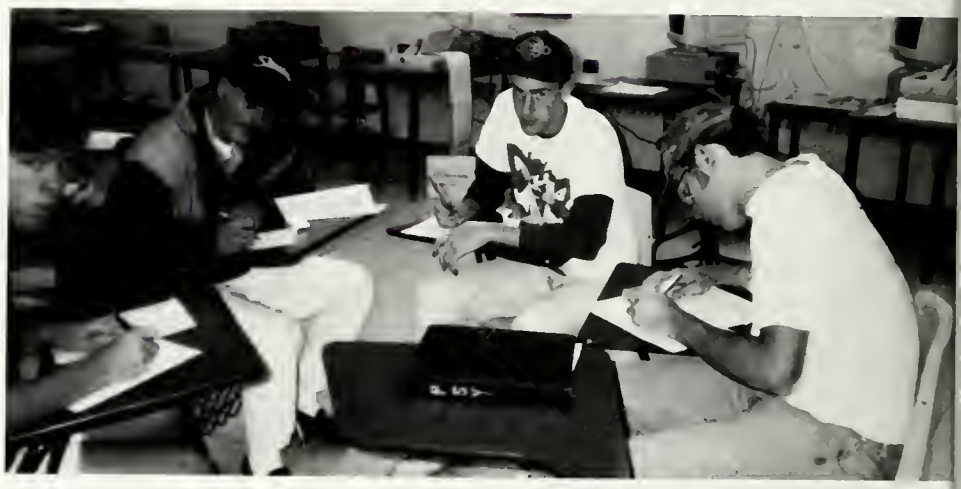
The Writing Center, under the directorship of Greg Dykes, provides help for students who wish to understand their writing process and to improve their writing skills. In this endeavor, the Writing Center staff serves as an extension of the guidance students receive from the college faculty about their writing. Members of the English faculty dedicate their time and effort to implement these writing services.

Hanako receives help on her paper from Tina McBride.

Becky laughs at Angela who seems to be suffering through a mental block.

Although it is 8:00 in the morning, Scott, Steve, James, and Hank work as diligently as they can.

Tommy Takahashi tutors a fellow student.

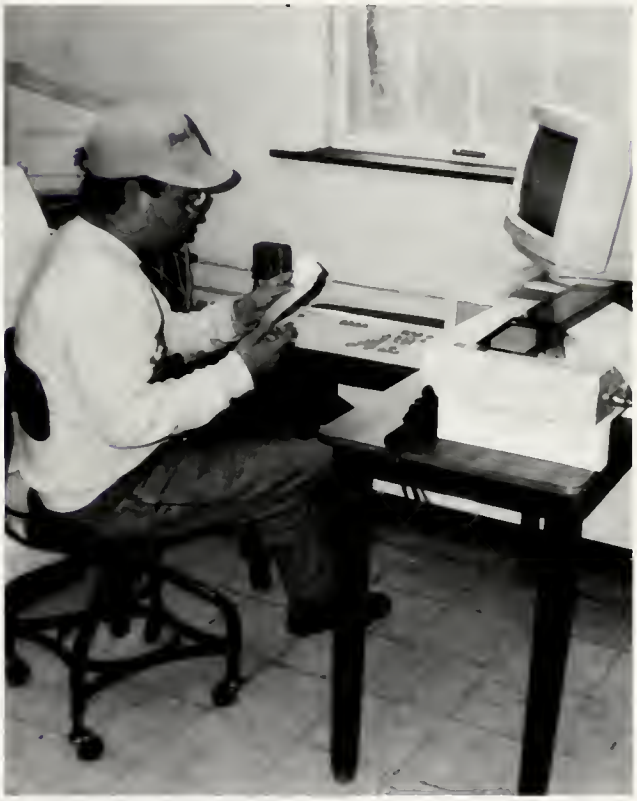


The Writing Center staff: Belton Hammond, Greg Dykes, Kristina Holland-McBride, Betsy Burrows, and Patricia Chapman.

Hoping that the computers will perform miracles and edit her paper for her, DJ types on.

English instructor, Betsy Burrows, tutors Kristy Burgess on one of those dreadful English papers.

"@!&%$#@ this computer," mutters Brett.*



Jonathon Mabry, better known as Ernest, blows Gwendolyn a kiss. Mabry's love interest is played by Liz Whipple.

Miss Prism and Ceclity Cardew, played by Brooke Guthrie and Stephanie Edwards respectively, discuss a diary.

Two couples rejoice in their decision of marriage.

Royce Sellers, Liz Whipple, Ken Sitton, and Stephanie Edwards pose for the camera.

Cecily Cardew is courted by Algernon Moncrieff, played by Kenneth Sitton.

David Sims character, Rev. Canon Chausible consoles Miss Prism.

No Blues At The Play

The drama students, director Sam Cope, and assistant Bob White, worked diligently to entertain the campus and visiting parents. This year's production was "The Importance of Being Ernest" written by Oscar Wilde.

Amy E. Wright and Ken Sitton discuss "The Importance of Being Ernest."

Liz Whipple and Royce Sellers keep the audience interested.

Going The Distance

Each year students from different cultures come to Brevard College. Many of these international students are from Japan. However, India, Chile, Ireland, Belize, France, Gambia and Yugoslavia are all represented.

Shinobu Tanaka is discussing her upcoming semester in Austria with Becky Frankwitz.

Giving It All They Got!

During the Talent Show, students came forth and rocked the auditorium with their musical talents. The performers varied in style as well as nationality. While the students were getting ready to come on stage, the comedian, "The Legendary Wid," kept the audience in an uproar. Those who attended were appreciative of the talent exhibited by our TRUE BLUE performers.

Antron, Ron, and Bryant rock the house.

"This is an example of what I call "The grateful dead'," says The Wid!

April Liebe and Ron Hawkins perform beautifully together.

Brad, Steve, and Wesley keep up the pace with their song, "Ride Horsey, Ride."

We've found "Love At Last," sings John, Maria, and Jeremy.

Tomayuki jams on his electric guitar!

Sachiko charms the audience with her powerful voice.

"I will sign autographs backstage," thinks Mark as he plays his heart out.

A Sign Of The Times

Madonna, Murphy Brown and baby as they appeared in the December 1992 issue of Us magazine.

From the publication of Madonna's controversial book Sex to the rejuvenation of children's movies such as "Beauty and the Beast" and "Aladdin," this country has been on the cutting edge while trying to recapture important family values. Yet, we, the people, voted out a president that stood for family values and Pro Life to vote in a Pro Choice advocate. A taste of a new generation in the first three way presidential race of our bipartisan country. We went to war with Iraq while needing to confront the inner city wars of our own nation. We united to assist victims of Hurricane Andrew after it left devastation and destruction in Southern Florida. However, in the sight of injustice our courage failed us as we devasted and destructed Los Angeles with our own hands. We busy ourselves with admiration for the fallen royals of the only country we have forsaken. We live in love, in hate and in fear of one another. We are a country in turmoil. Has our system failed or are we a country of people trying to accept the individuality of its members while desperately reaching out to grasp the things long established before they slip away?

The three presidential candidates appeared in the September 28, 1992 issue of Newsweek.

Linda Epperson runs yet another errand as Administrative Assistant to the President.

President West dictates a letter to his new assistant.

Interim President Leads College In A New Direction

After the resignation of William T. Greer, Jr. in August, Dr. Cameron P. West gladly stepped in as our interim president until a new successor of Greer was named. Dr. West along with his administrative assistant, Linda Epperson, faithfully commit themselves to the academic excellence of this college, review the status and goals of Brevard College, conduct faculty forums, and host the trustees in their fall and spring meetings.

Joyce Jackson makes copies of the Spring schedules.

In an effort to CLARIFY matters, Doc Wood is always available to give a few pointers.

Laurie Krugg can't handle the pressure during pre-registration, so she takes out her frustrations on the registrar, Joyce Jackson.

Brevard College's Continuing Ed. classes keep Jacolyn Campbell busy.

Marianne Whitman stays busy keeping track of Dean Wood's hit list.

These Women Run A Smooth Operation

The members of Doc Wood's office work diligently to see that various aspects of the college run smoothly. For instance, registration, Continuing Education classes, probationary programs, academic honors, and graduation ceremonies are just a few of the responsibilities that keep these women continually on the move. (Right to left) Joyce Jackson, Jacolyn Campbell, Laurie Krugg, Marianne Whitman, and Dr. Clara Wood are excellent examples of how true dedication can keep BC running smoothly.

Don Scarborough is keeping a list and checking it twice — for those who have paid and those who aren't nice.

They Work Hard For The Money.

The staff of the Development Office includes: Sharon Brigham; Paige Johnson; Keith Poole; Don Scarborough, Director of Development; Tami Geiger; Marty Cochran; and Betty Neal, Director of Alumni. The staff works diligently year-round in their fundraising efforts for Brevard College. Their enthusiasm and dedication are key components in the raising of funds for the overhead costs as well as for the expansion projects. The college endowment, scholarships, and capital projects rely upon the success of this development team.

Becky Sanchez and Reisa Pless brainstorm over new recruiting techniques — "How aboot free tutition??????"

Not pictured: Gala Rice and Becky Sanchez. The admissions staff stays busy each year planning for next year's student body. They travel to various high school throughout the South to interview prospective seniors. While in the office, they are busy reviewing students' credentials, awarding scholarship money, and hosting visitation days. In turn, the financial aid staff reviews the need of incoming students as well as students presently attending Brevard College. Lisanne and Caron keep busy with work study students, scholarship and grant awards, and counseling students on making the best financial decision possible. Needless to say, these people work hard to fulfill the promise written on the entrance gate: "No one will be turned away by want of means."

Dean Witek and Susan Chappell keep busy preparing for the students' January arrival.

During Busy times, even Steve Woodson has to wait his turn.

Helping The Ship Sail Smoothly

The Students Affairs staff stays busy year round. Housing assignments, selection of Resident Directors and Resident Assistants, security concerns and discipline problems keep Susan Chappell and Norm Witek, Dean of Student Affairs, on their toes at all times.

Director Dale Weiner uses his computer's capabilities to assist him in making major financial decisions for the college.

Doris Montgomery and Dale Weiner take some time out for a few laughs.

Resident Directors And Security

Brevard College's resident directors and security work side by side to keep the students in a fun and safe environment possible their duties never end!

A Matter Of Taste

The Albert G. Myers cafeteria at Brevard College offers a variety of food for the students, staff, and residents of Brevard. From salads and hamburgers to tacos and vegetables, the cafeteria offers something for everyone. However, breakfast, the most important meal, is very popular among the students who will actually get up earlier just to go eat. The cafeteria staff works hard to prepare special meals for the students, especially on holidays which brings a special touch of home into our bellies.

The Snack Bar in Coltrane Commons offers an alternative to the cafeteria food. Students who oversleep or have too much studying to do during the cafeteria hours can still nourish their bodies in the Snack Bar. Using their ID's, the students can purchase anything from egg rolls and chicken wings to pizza. The ARA Food Service provides the food for the snack bar as well as for the cafeteria.

As Scott decides on a four year school, Adelaide Miller, the transfer counselor assists.

Helping the BC students and Mrs. Miller, the transfer secretary, Betty Choate keeps busy.

Resources For Life

The James Addison Jones Library Staff: Burnley Ganus, Jackie Young, Jan Jones, Mike McCabe, Barbara Cantrell, and George Stahlberg.

Adelaide Miller and Betty Choate discuss the October College Day.

The James Addison Library is a very important place on campus. Not only does the library provide the useful resources needed for completing those research projects, but it also provides a quiet place for one to relax, read, and study. With over 44,000 books, 150 CD's 100 video tapes, and 250 periodicals, the library is a useful source of information for students, faculty, and county residents.

The Transfer Office, located in the basement of the library, is a place where most students will probably visit at least once. For those students who are more anxious about futhering their education or about leaving BC, the transfer office is very useful in helping students make the important decisions about their future. Adelaide Miller, the transfer counselor, and Betty Choate, the transfer office secretary, help students choose a school, fill out the necessary paperwork, as well as plan the College Day visits throughout the year.

Keeping The Blues Away

The Brevard College Infirmary, also known as Stamey Infirmary, finds itself crowded with students needing everything from cough medicine, aspirin, and Band-aids to notes from the nurse (which will hopefully be accepted by the instructor!) The Infirmary is staffed by Barbara White, R.N.; Pat Jenkins, L.P.N.; and Dr. Folger. The staff holds hours on Monday and Friday from 8:30 until 4:30 and on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thrusday from 8:30 am until 9:00 pm; furthermore, the infirmary staff is on call 24 hours a day for emergencies. Not only does the staff tend to those who are not well, they also provide and teach vitally important programs such as: Alcohol Awareness, Date Rape, Drugs, CPR, STD's and others. So as you can see, the nurses at the Stamey Infirmary help the students in more ways than one.

The Brevard College Bookstore serves a number of functions. The staff puts in long hours handling and sorting mail, ordering and stocking textbooks, and ordering and stocking school supplies. The bookstore works hard to provide the students with appropriate notebooks, pens, highlighters, and even sweats and jackets for those cold winter months. So between ordering more Super Blow bubble gum to making sure those letters from far-away friends are in your mailbox, the bookstore staff tries to provide some comforts of home.

Keeping BC Beautiful

It Takes A Lot Of People To Keep BC Looking Good

The Maintenance and Housekeeping Staff work year-round keeping the grounds and the buildings in shape. Certain times you can find these people working double time.

Cleaning Jones keeps Alice Gash busy.

Lisa Sack keeps the rooms in MG clean.

Raoni Parshall, a switchboard operator, keeps the line of communication open between the outside world and those here at BC.

"I'm not your mother, and no this tea is not for you," says Robbie Warren, the MG secretary.

"I get more calls than any other girl on campus," smirks Pearl Hammon, a switchboard operator.

Bobby Jean Whitmire, the MS secretary, after many years of dedication to BC still remains loyal and sane.

They Support Us All

How Would BC Make It Without Them?

Shirley Wing works diligently to get some urgent work done for the coaches.

The people who keep most operations running smoothly are usually behind the scenes. Likewise, the support staff at BC assists with the production of tests, conducting surveys, printing needs as well as organizational duties. Although they may not always receive the glory, we ALL know and appreciate how hard they work.

Ann Etters keeps the printing and mailings running smoothly in Beam Administration Building.

Nochin Bone stays busy in the Music Department.

Screaming Deadline Blues

The Brevard College Yearbook was named in conjunction with its big brother, Duke University's Chanticleer. The meaning behind Pertelote originated from "The Nun's Priest Tale" included is The Cantabury Tales. In this tale the Pertelote is the most loved hen of the Chanticleer. Thus was born the name of BC's Yearbook.

Tina Holland-McBride, The 1993 Pertelote Advisor, pretends like she knows how to use the yearbook's new computer with the look of enthusiasm across her face.

Patricia Chapman, The 1993 Pertelote Assistant Advisor. This being the first year that the yearbook staff has ever had an assistant, Patricia looks just as lost and confused as the rest of us.

The 1993 Pertelote Staff worked diligently for deadlines to ensure a speedy return shipment. This enables students to obtain their yearbooks before leaving campus in May. This creativity must flow at 1 A.M. just as well as 1 P.M. Therefore, only the dedicated survive. So take this True Blue and Enjoy!

Krista DeGrenier, The 1993 Pertelote Editor, during the deadline frenzy she gets down to work and makes the yearbook office her home.

Roses Are Red, Violets Are Blue, We're Chiaroscuro, And Here's What We Do

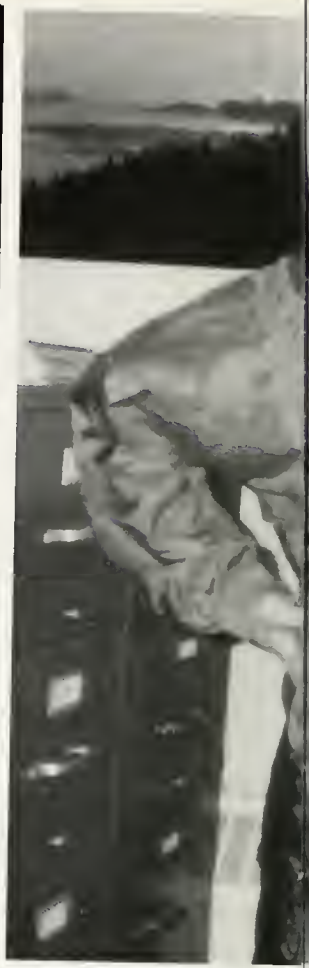
Ken Chamlee has sponsored the Chiaroscuro for the past three years. His hard work is a major factor in the success of Brevard College's literary magazine.

Ken Chamlee, Chiaroscuro advisor, enjoys reading the finished product.

Sophomore Chris Lowe has taken on the responsibility of editor for the Chiaroscuro. With his determination and drive, the Chairoscuro will be successful again this year.

Chris Lowe, The Chiarscuro editor, laughs as he finally "gets the idea."

Freshman Missy Burney has gladly taken on the role of assisting Chris and Mr. Chamlee. As assistant editor, Missy provides a lot of help to the editor.



Missy Burney smiles at the completion of the Chiaroscuro.

The Rest Of The Story

A major source of information and communication here at BC, the Clarion and its staff make every effort to report the top stories and the current events that affect us as students. The BC newspaper provides a place for our voice and concerns to be channeled. Brad Kimzey, the advisor, works closely with the editors to report the news as well as get the real scoop. From special commentaries and profiles to editorials, the Clarion seeks to provide the students as well as the faculty with news that counts and that will be cherished in our hearts and scrapbooks for years to come.

Brad Kimzey, the Clarion advisor, knows that a journalist's job is never finished.

April Liebe, the Clarion editor, explains their top stories and assignments for the week.

SGA & J-Board Improves BC

The SGA President, Vice President of J-Board. and Vice President of Social Board gather together much of the year to discuss up-coming events. These very prominent figures on campus work hard to achieve a wellness for the entire student body. The SGA welcomes all opinions and viewpoints while regularly attempting to work for the students as their representative to the faculty and administration.

SGA Officers: Duchess Wimberly, Vice President Judicial Board; Soctt Wherley, President; Krista DeGrenier, Vice President Social Board.

SGA is made up of representatives from each floor of each dorm. They help to get things that the students want for instance dances, extension of visitation on homecoming, and a 24 hour study and social place.

J-Board is comprised of one representative from each dorm. Their task is to review student point appeals. It is not an easy job due to the fact that they are listening in on students that are their peers and sometimes their own friends.

Taking The Lead

Phi Theta Kappa exists to recognize and encourage scholarship among its students. Freshmen must maintain a 3.5 and sophomores a 3.2 g.p.a. In addition, these students must receive approval from the faculty. PTK is involved in many community activities as well as involvement within the campus. Each member strives towards the reality of a strong and effective chapter: one that will be a credit to each individual member.

Jon Negoescu
President, PTK

Each year Brevard College honors the top 10% of the rising sophomore class. This year five students were named Marshals. Kirsten Hines, Jody Bates (chief marshal), Rebecca Owen, Brandon Kitchen and Shannon Wetmore. These students assist with formal ceremonies such as graduation and convocation. It is to the college's advantage that these academically gifted students can take the time away from their studies to assist the college in an offical capacity.

Students Ambassadors And Big Ten

The Student Ambassadors is a student organization sponsored by the Admissions staff. Its members are involved in campus tours and visitation days. These students take pride in assisting with visitation registration, answering questions from prospective students, and occasionally eating at Kelsey's. No one can be "all work and no play." Obviously this organization is an intregal part of the Admissions process.

The Big Ten organization consists of the presidents of campus organizations. Thus, the leadership qualities this group possesses is a vital part of its success. The Big Ten helps with making major campus decisions and creating new ideas for campus policies. These students juggle their already busy schedule to assist the Student Affairs office.

Broadening Our Horizons

The Spanish and French Clubs, under the direction of Judy Pascale and Joy Bullock, sponsored socials, presentations, speeches, and parties to encourage each of their members to appreciate and participate in the Spanish and French cultures. The French Club participates in a trip to the Biltmore House each year during the Christmas season. The Biltmore House, located off I-26 West, incorporates features from several Chateaux of the Loire, notably including Blois and Azay-le-Rideau. The Spanish Club had a party at Mrs. Pascale's house and they watched El Norte.

RA's Help Regulate College Rules

Doc Wood tutors Bobby Gardner on how to be a good RA.

RA's Christy Stevens and Angela Beard get some helpful pointers for RD Brew Nelson.

RA's Lead The Way

Resident Assistants, better known as RA's, advise dorm residents on various rules and regulations of the college. The Resident Assistant cannot write students up for infractions like alcohol in the room, after-hours visitation, and noise pollution. The Resident Assistant advises the student(s) to either leave, turn down the source of the noise, put up the alcohol or he or she will turn in the names of those involved to the Resident Director. In addition, RA's listen to students' problems and most of the time have an open door policy.

This year, the group of RA's are quite diverse. They hale from eleven different states from coast to coast and one from Canada. Obviously, several BC students have traveled far away from home and assumed an important leadership role on campus.

Keeping The Faith

There are several organizations on campus that unite the students with fellowship and worship such as the Wesley Fellowship Club, the Friends of Christian Athletes (FCA), the Baptist Student Union, and Bible Study. Reverend Ernie Mills, the College Chaplin, meets at the Project Inside-Out building on Tuesday evenings for dinner and conversation. Sharing meals and finding time to relax and share their faith together is an important aspect of these various religious groups. They also find time to visit elderly citizens of the community and those in retirement homes. FCA brings the athletes together who know that it is just as important to exercise their faith as it is to exercise their bodies. Lastly, Clyde Carter is very active with the Bible Study group which meets every Sunday at his own home to worship together. So as one can see, these groups are very active and enjoy keeping their faith.

BC Recycles

During the fall of 1992, some students at Brevard College united to form a new environmental club. This club, known as BC Recycles, is active in a variety of activities. Recycling on campus has become a focus of faculty, staff and students, not just the members of BC Recycles. Obviously, their work is beginning to pay off. Dr. Bob Glesener plays an active role as advisor to the group. Dr. Glesener always finds time to assist any way he can. From advising the commuter organization to teaching biology, Glesener never seems to be short of time for those who need him. Therefore, this lucky group of students have a dedicated leader, a specific environmental focus, and enough new members to keep the recycling effort at BC alive and well.

The Chamber Chorale And The Collegiate Singers

Performing and providing entertainment for the college community is the Chamber Chorale and the Collegiate Singers. The Chamber Chorale is a twenty-one member ensemble that was featured in numerous regional performances and at the 4th annual Christmas Madrigal Dinners. The members also perform at the Fall and Spring Convocations, Fall Concert, and they can be seen on many occassions at the Brevard Methodist Church.

The Collegiate Singers is another vocal group whose work culminated in a fall semester performance of John Rutter's "Gloria" which was held at the Brevard Methodist Church in November. During the spring semester this 55 member group performs at the Spring Convocation and at graduation.

Concert Band And MENC Stay Active

Music majors and minors have various organizations on the BC campus where they can get involved and learn about not only musical variety but also music education. Music Educators National Conference (MENC), under the direction of Diane Daniels, helps students learn about their future career — Music Education. In addition to learning about their future career, members learn how to apply for teaching positions.

The 1992-93 concert band was fortunate to be under the direction of Dr. Robert Palmer. Dr. Palmer takes time from his hectic schedule with Brevard High School marching and concert bands to conduct the BC band. This year the band had two major on-campus performances, one on November 12 and a spring performance on April 1. These performances included classical, marches and modern music.

The Jazz Band And Percussion Ensemble

The Jazz Band and Persussion Ensemble, under the direction of Diane Daniels, rocks not only the Dunham Auditorium but also the entire campus. The Jazz Ensemble consists of 24 members who perform various styles of standard big band, swing and rock, and funk jazz. The Ensemble is featured in concert on the BC campus each semester during the Life and Culture series. Futhermore, they performed at the BC Fall Trustee Meeting, at Connestee Falls for an evening of jazz, and they also make their debut at other functions on campus.

The Brevard College Percussion Ensemble performs every semester for the college and rocks the house. They also performed in the North Carolina Percussion Arts Society Day of Percussion. This six member group keeps busy jamming on everything from drums to melodic keyboard percussions. So under the baton of Diane Daniels, these groups stay busy all year long providing powerful entertainment for the college and surrounding community.

The Spirit Of BC Prevails

Finally, cheerleading is back with more energy than ever.

Whether students join in on organized activities such as The Climbing Wall or venture out on their own for a bike ride or an afternoon of flying kites, all students seem to enjoy a variety of physical activities. Sometimes when days are long and stressful, some activity helps to relieve the mind and chase away the blues.

With the wide spectrum of available activities, the only problem facing students is which activity to choose. Excluding surfing, it seems that every activity in the universe is available at Brevard.

Brooke and Phil relax with an afternoon bike ride.

"Hey coach, I can swim now — watch" yells Scott Perone as the other try to be like him.

Wonderful day at Brevard, "We should always practice in the rain," yelled some guys as they throw the ball.

Aren't the "Boys of Summer" taking their title a little too seriously.

The Brevard College Men's Baseball Team, under the direction of first year coach Rusty Stroupe had much optimism as they headed into the spring season. Returning are many proven sophomores, along with an extremely talented class of freshmen. Together they meshed into one of the top teams in Region X. No matter what the weather may bring, our guys withstand the elements to show off their talents and bring pride to BC.

Baseball players seem to sweat more in their classes than they do on the field!!

The team stands around waiting for coach to tell them what's next.

Scrambling to get a foot on the ball are Joy Hauser and Beth Goetz while Julie Meyer waits for the pass.

Celebration time for the Tornadoes as they congratulate each other after another victory.

Kicking The Blues Away

The Men's Soccer Team had a successful year with a record of 12-5-2 and becoming the Region X Champions. Coach Andy Shaeffer obviously got off on the right foot here at BC.

The 1992-93 Men's Soccer Team (l to r): Pete DeLuca, Rick Evans, Robert Crowe, Derrick Faulcon, Lou Brancourt, Steve Stahlschmidt, Mike Haga, Sean Jones, Chris Cloush and Dave Underwood. (back): Manager Ronnie Tolley, Mike Luby, Kevin Elker, Kevin Kiser, Paul Caubbini, Tony Vaughn, Dylan Morley, Mark Abbott, Brad Foster, Toby Leibin, Franck Van Der Bauwede, Matt Falcone and Coach Schaefer.

The Women's Soccer Team was also quite successful with a record of 14-4. Coach Bartlinski has been successful all four years he has coached at Brevard College.

The Women's Basketball team huddles together as Carmen Nelon, coach, carefully explains their strategy.

Spending time on the road during the holidays does have its downfalls — ask Bobby, who evidently can't seem to find his shorts!

We can feel the tension as the Men's Basketball Team attempts to make the winning shot!

The Lady Tornadoes warm up for another V-I-C-T-O-R-Y.

Set It Up

The Men's Basketball Team, coached by Tom Radford, enjoyed not only a successful season, but a Thanksgiving trip to Florida as well. The Men's team illustrates how playing college ball is not necessarily all work and no play.

The Women's Basketball Team was united this year by a new coach, alumni and former BC most valuable basketball player, Carmen Nelon. These players came together to have a successful season.

The 1992-93 Men's Cross Country and Track Teams: (1 to r): John Steele, Eric Smoote, Bobby Gardner, Jason Horn, Nick Thibodeaux and Steven Thacker (2nd): James Porter, Patrick Miller, Jerry Franks, Brian Crawford, Joe Mastropasqua, Stephen Baldwin, Alex Martinez and Mike Pratt. (3rd): Coach Rinker, Chris Huffstickler, Nathan Hedden, Bo Helmick, Andre Innis, Jason Morris, Chris Ford, Preston Davies and Mike Knox

The Cross Country and Track Teams were lead by long time coach and athletic director Dave Rinker. This year the teams met such opposition as Clemson, Virginia Tech and Duke. As always, these teams lived up to their great reputation and made BC proud.

The 1992-93 Women's Cross Country and Track Teams: (1 to r): Ardra McDonald, Kristy Burgess, Dawn Folliard, Jennifer Thurmond, Claire Dougherty, Anne Gaines, Tracy Straub and Coach Rinker.

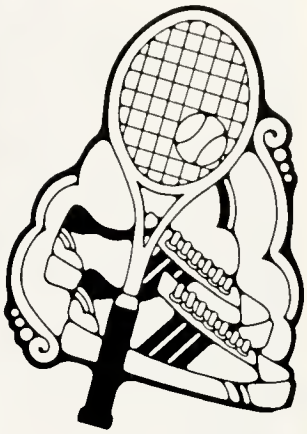
Playing In The Spring

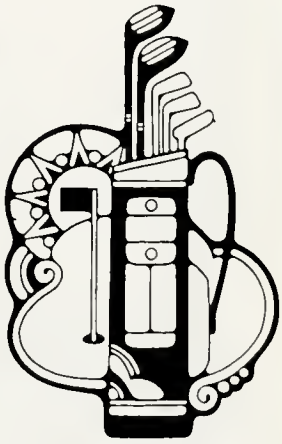
In addition to coaching women's soccer, Coach Bartlinski coaches tennis. Thus, BC keeps coach Bart busy year round.

Tennis practices begins in January. Thus, players are found shivering on the court in their sweatpants.



The golf team, under the Direction of Scott Yager is anticipating a good season. Dean Witek who coached in the Fall.

The 1992-93 Men's Golf Team: Coach Scott Yager, John Keever, Galen Foulois, Lee Windsor, Kevin Gosnell, Ben Isenhour, Pat Rohnbaugh, and Alex Ogle.



Starting Our Right

Outside of coaching, the three new coaches also teach classes. Being multi-talented people in many different sports makes it easy for these new coaches to fit in well at this school. The coaches have worked very hard at making their teams better all around, and they have. The women's basketball team has made a tremendous turn around. The men's soccer team are Region X champs, and the baseball team is sure to bring us more wonderful news.

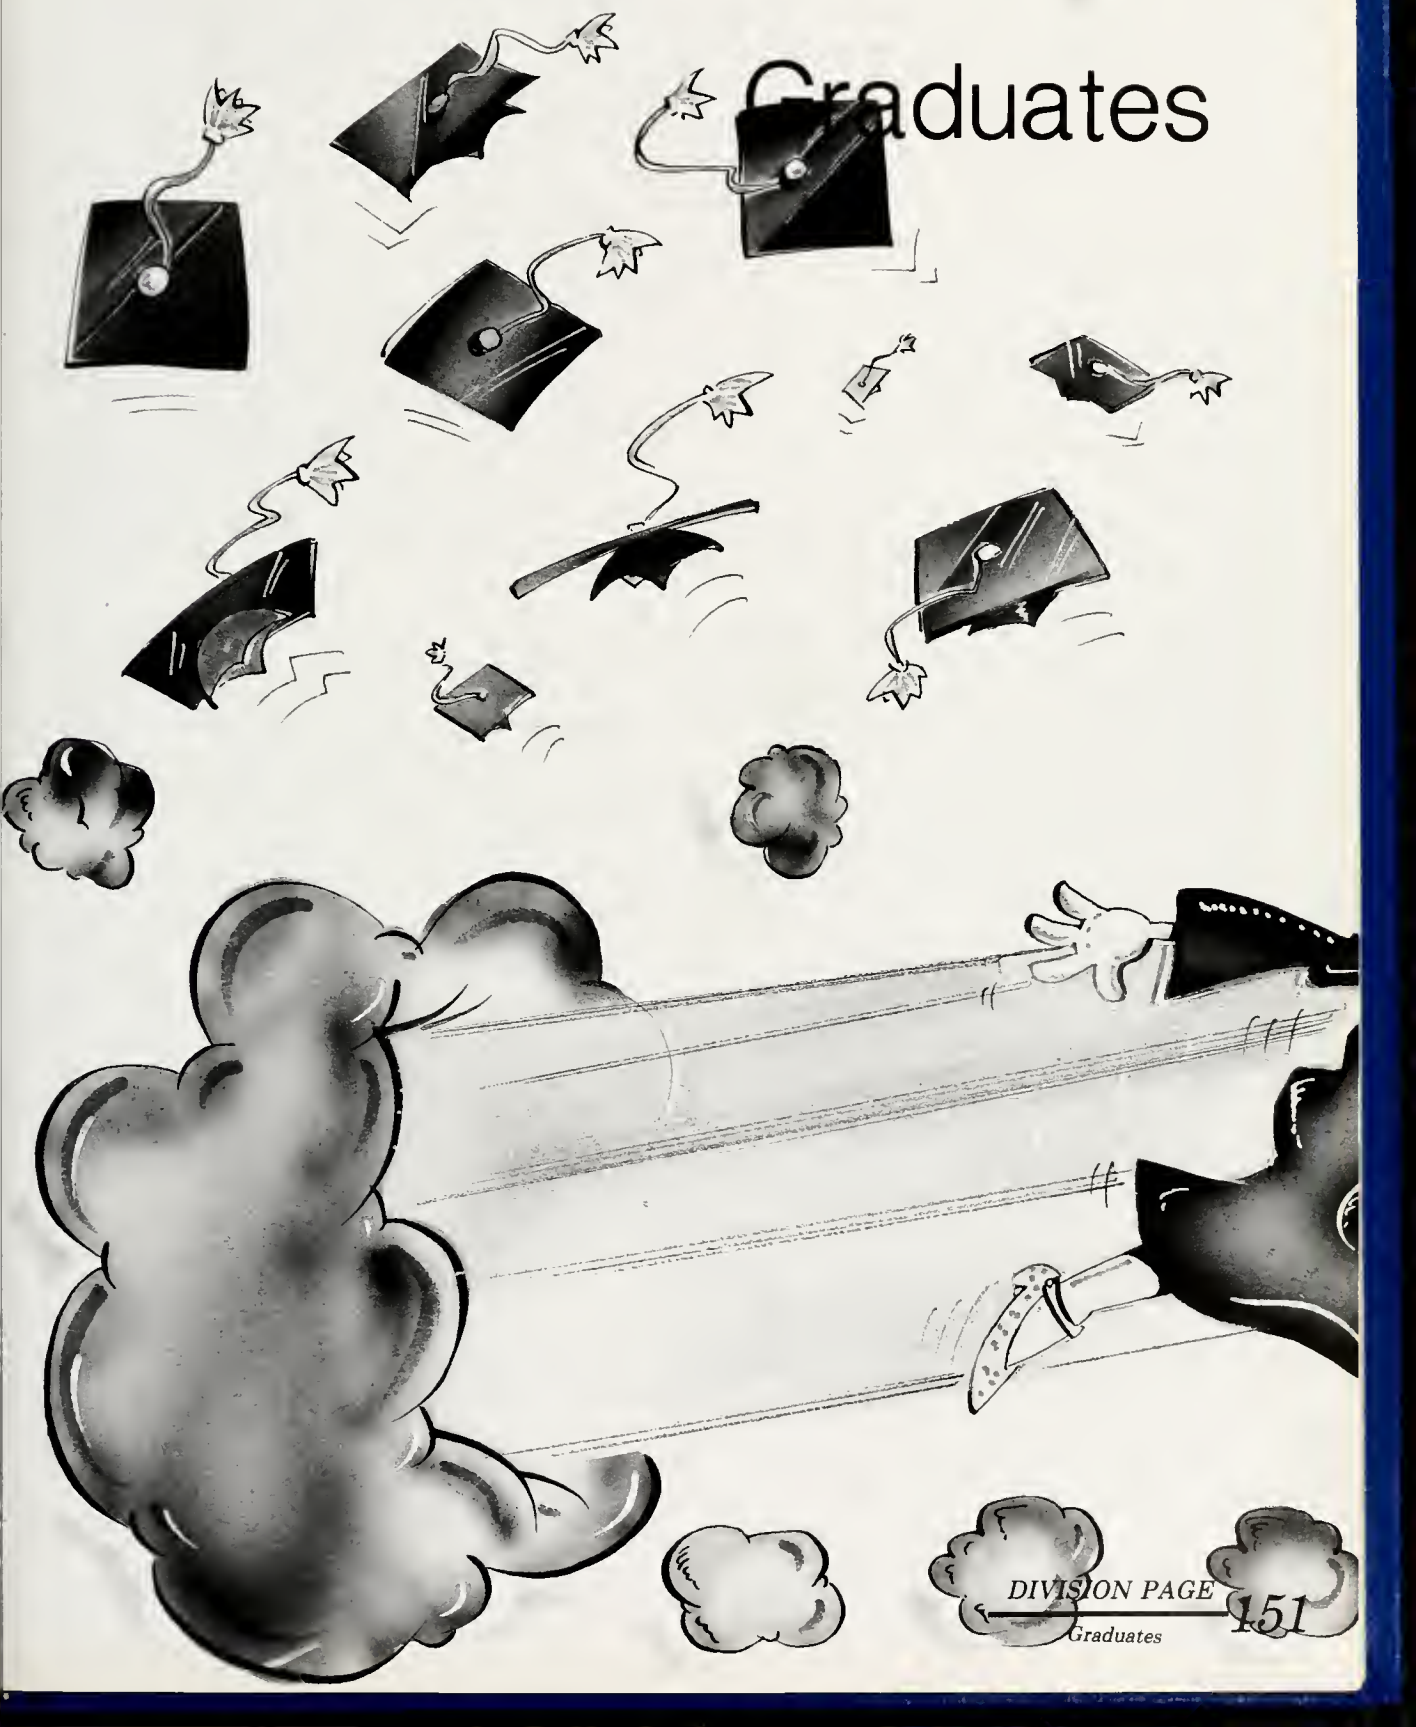
Graduates



Brevard College Is An Excellent Beginning To An Exciting Future

BC Grads

Each year Brevard College holds its commencement exercises in the Spring. Although some may view this as an end, most graduates view this day as a beginning. Many students that graduate from Brevard College go on to do many things: transfer to a four-year institution, obtain a job, travel, or relax for one semester before returning to college. However, no matter what the students do, they definitely return to BC to express how they miss Brevard after they leave. (All pictures compliments of The Clarion)

Students watch as their friends receive diplomas.

Students stand and wait for their degrees to be conferred.

Doc Wood announces the names of the 1992 graduates.

After graduation, Jason Stevens and Chrissie Noble say good-bye.

The People

The Heart Of Brevard

Brevard College attracts a number of students from a variety of cultures and walks of life. Yet we, as students, have the opportunity to be an individual and to be part of a growing family that will become a major part of our lives. Although the beauty of the campus is memorable for all, it's the people that make each of our experiences at BC unforgettable. The administration, faculty, and students grow close each year to offer one another support and form that BC family bond.

The Friendships

"Where Everybody Knows Your Name"

There is a special unity among the students at BC. The small campus enables each student to get to know the others and develop long-lasting friendships that grow with each day. The students come to college as strangers but leave as the best of friends. The friendships that have developed are unique because each student has the opportunity to be an individual and to be part of a growing family. Most of us will agree that it is nice to be "where everybody knows your name."

The Serenity

A Sense Of Peace

The cool, crisp fall evenings, the light winter snows, the breath taking sunsets against the Blue Ridge Mountains — Brevard College. All of these things and more make BC the perfect place for both academics and fun. The campus gives students a chance to be with friends or the perfect opportunity for time spent alone in one of the most beautiful places on earth. Whether students travel in the early morning hours to enjoy the sunrise at Devil's Court House or take that scenic drive through Pisgah National Forest during peak weekend with family members visiting for Parents' Weekend, all students from time to time know the peace and fulfillment that the serenity of Brevard College can bring.
